

Starting to Write 2nd Edition

Step-by-step guidance to becoming an author

For all creative writers

*
Writer's Guides | A Studymates Series

starting to Write

Step-by-step guidance to become an author

Dr Rennie Parker

Price

£12.99 €13.99

$13.99 (U.S.A.)

Format

Paperback,
215 x 135mm,
160pp

Second Edition

978-1-84285-244-6

Edition 1 ISBN

978-184285-093-0

Territory

World all language

About the Author

Dr Rennie Parker is an academic and published writer. She teaches creative writing in Leicestershire and works for a community arts team in Lincolnshire where she lives.

Information Points

- written by an expert academic who is also a published writer
- Deals with a growing market of amateurs and undergraduates
- Each chapter develops a mental or practical skill
- Advice packaged in bite-sized chunks.

How to become an author: An Aber Publishing Series

Here is how to become a published writer

Many people yearn to become a published writer but publishers complain of the poor quality manuscripts they receive and how they are un-publishable. There are a substantial number of novice writers who are making totally avoidable mistakes.

In this book you will learn:

- How to start writing and become your best critic
- How to deal with writers block, rejection and still keep writing
- How to find a market for your work
- How to find the best writing style and best area to write in, for your personality

Market

All students taking courses to improve their creative writing skills

- Post 16-Level students and first-year undergraduates on creative writing and creative studies degrees
- Adult education centres including WEA
- Teachers, tutors and lecturers
- School libraries, reference and public libraries
- University and college central libraries. Ideal for undergraduates

SUBJECT AREA

Creative writing/Creative studies/Eng Lit

Related Titles

Writing TV Scripts 978-1-84285-062-6 2nd ed

