

The Litter Skitter

isbn 9781842855669

Patricia Sumner

Price £ 5.99 €6.99

A5 40pgs

This will be of interest to:

- Libraries who wish to support teenagers in their reading.
- primary/elementary schools
- Basic Skills/SEN/Primary teachers.

‘HI-Lo’ reader.

High interest but low reading age.

This book is designed to engage children in what is a delightful book.

Someone is secretly dropping litter everywhere! Their naughty antics are ruining our parks, beaches, streets... Who could it possibly be?

Perhaps it's a strange and mischievous creature called the Litter-Skitter. After all, it couldn't be anyone else, could it?

This unique and funny book, with its catchy rhymes and entertaining illustrations, will capture the imaginations of children.

Patricia Sumner is an author for Hamilton-Vale. She is a mother and a teacher and brings her talent for writing for children in the most delightful way. She lives with her husband in the North west of the U.K. where they enjoy a varied life. Patricia is also known as Mama Pat and visits schools to read her books to children.

New Lamorna House
Abergele LL22 7DY
01745 832863

